

Here's how you can take action in response to Focus on the Family's broadcast series on radical Islam:

- 1. Be informed: Proactively seek other sources of information about radical Islam and the global war on terror beyond the politically correct and liberally biased coverage of the mainstream news media. One good source from a Christian perspective, for example, is the blog of author Joel Rosenberg at <http://joelrosenberg.blogspot.com/>. You also can subscribe to Joel's "Flash Traffic" reports and have them delivered regularly to your e-mail in-box.
- 2. Vote: Elections matter, and the 2008 elections will have massive implications for our future. Listen carefully to the candidates' positions on national security and the global war.
- 3. Support Israel and the global war on terror: Make no mistake — radical jihadists advocate the demise of both Israel and the United States. This is a war that must be won for the sake of future generations.
- 4. Pray for Muslim families worldwide, many of whom have lost family members at the hands of Islamic terrorists, that this message of hate would not take root among those Muslims who honor peace.
- 5. Pray for our leadership, for our military and for God's protection. Pray against the work of the devil, which is to steal, kill and destroy.

Other things to consider:

Joel Rosenberg has a similar prescription — Learn, Pray, Give and Go. He adds some practical steps Christians can take to show the love of Christ to Muslims and Jews such as offering humanitarian relief during short-term mission trips and Holy Land visits. Finally, to learn more about the threat of radical Islam, consider ordering the following resources from Focus on the Family:

* Global Jihad – a new book by Patrick Sookhdeo which offers a scholarly and in-depth look at the teachings of Islam, past and present, which form the driving force for Islamic terrorism

* Epicenter – a bestselling book by Joel Rosenberg

* Epicenter – the DVD based on Joel's bestselling book of the same title. Find out more about the DVD at http://joelrosenberg.com/epicenter_dvd.asp.
